

A slower kind of coffee break.

FICTIONAL BRAND CAMPAIGN / KOPI SENJA

A self-initiated demonstration project showing how a simple social campaign can pair a clear visual direction with concise bilingual copy and organized supporting data.

01 SOCIAL DESIGN

Original 4:5 poster concept with a restrained forest-green and warm-cream palette, clear headline hierarchy, and a simple illustrated cup.

02 COPY & TRANSLATION

Short Indonesian and English captions, product-description examples, and calls to action with a calm, approachable tone.

03 DATA ENTRY & EXCEL

Structured fictional product records with filters, input validation, stock flags, and formula-based inventory values.

EXCEL SAMPLE INCLUDES

- Eight fictional SKU records with product category, price, and on-hand quantity.
- Formula-driven stock status and illustrative inventory value; currency formatted in IDR.
- Filterable Excel tables, frozen headers, category dropdowns, and non-negative quantity validation.
- Four bilingual campaign entries with format, objective, visual direction, and CTA.
- Translation/copy examples in both directions, with brief tone and QA notes.

QUALITY & TRANSPARENCY

Example translations are meaning-focused drafts, not certified translations. Product statements are illustrative and intentionally avoid unverified sourcing, health, or sales claims. Please adapt copy to a real client brief before publication.
